20 189 London Transport - 20 227 London Underground - 20 142 BR Blue livery

London Underground 150 Years

Choppers may be in their sixth decade of mainline service, but that hasn't stopped them appearing in numerous liveries in recent years. 20227, which is owned by the Class 20 Preservation Society is now in London Underground colours can be added to the list of liveries adorning the class with the repaint of 20227. The 20 has been frequently used on the delivery of brand new 'S-Stock' trains from Derby to London Underground's Neasden depot.

The repaint took place ahead of the 20's role in 'Steam on the Met' in 2013, which is part of the London Underground 150 celebrations. 20227, 142 & 189 carried out test runs for the 'Steam on The Met' 150 year celebration with 'Sarah Siddons' and the LT 4TC set, the train was seen on 26th April 2013 at Harrow on the Hill on the run between Neasden and Amersham.

The 'Three to the Sea' headboard was dusted off and back on the mainline in May 2013 for the run down to Swanage Gala. 20227, 142 & 189 travelled in convoy without the TC stock as originally planned, running through West Byfleet and Eastleigh.

20189 operated on Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th May 2013 with 20227 running on Monday 27th May as part of 'Met 150' celebrations. Timetables were as follows;

25, 26 & 27 May 2013 Steam back on the Met timetable
